

Southern California Artists Association - Application for Atelier Scholarship

Atelier Scholars are entitled to all benefits of a 6 month Atelier membership in the Southern California Artists Association (a $375 cash value), including free admission to all regular Atelier workshops and discounts for shows and events, receipt of association news letter, and web page listing on our website. Atelier workshops with live models are held four times each week in our Laguna Beach Studio www.socalartists.org on Laguna Canyon Road. Specific schedules are available in our on-line calendar.

Scholars will draw and paint with other artists in regular atelier workshops and must provide 8 hours/month service in art functions (These hours to be coordinated with SoCal Artists Executive Director (Fred Hope).

Scholars will be reviewed after six months for scholarship continuation for an additional six months. Scholars must be at least 18 years of age and willing to share examples or a portfolio of art to a committee for review. For additional information, please visit our website or email info@socalartists.org
